

Luna! I can't believe it...

-You did it, man...omg...you did it (crying)

Yeah but tell me what in the world is going on?

-I don't know...a random stranger gave me a book and I couldn't resist...I just thought its a joke or something. But dude this is unbelievable.

Okay, whatever it is. We need to get out of this quickly.

-Wait...we r just one step behind.
There lies the treasure. That's what I read in the book There are 16 boxes and only one of them has the treasure. Rest all of them has some kind of poison that will kill us if we open it. We need to solve this riddle. Let's do it...shall we?

[This is a special riddle. If you solve this correctly you may get to the treasure. But you have only 3 trials. If you fail you don't get any treasure. Choose wisely. You have to select the box that has the treasure. Eg- If you think its the 1st box, then type 1]
